One Rock Three Religions

On September 21st, United Nations day, dedicated to World Peace, I was invited by Valentina Castellani-Quinn, producer and President of Quinn Studios www.quinnstudios.tv and YPOer Bobby Sager, and one of the main narrators in the film, to the premiere of the Documentary " ONE ROCK THREE RELIGIONS " in Washington DC.

"One Rock Three Religions" is a feature length Documentary film that starts from Jerusalem's most politically sensitive site, the Temple Mount or Haram Al Sharif, and takes into account events that have recently shaken the world. It invites us to reexamine the Israeli Palestinian conflict and the impact the three Abrahamic faiths can have on world peace. This film confronts the ignorance and bias that creates the current situation in Jerusalem and elsewhere around the world and dares us to do something about it.

What a wonderful evening! and most importantly, what a wonderful movie! the movie brings a great deal of clarity to an age old issue whose narrative keeps changing to reflect current political agendas. I applaud Bobby Sager and Valentina Castellani, for bringing it to the forefront at this time.

The Movie will be presented at the 2015 YPO Israel Regional Conference "TOUCH ISRAEL 2015" - October 8th/12th
